

SPECIAL SESSION*

With the support of The Club of Rome and of the Central European Initiative (CEI)

October 23, 2004 – Duino Castle (Trieste), Italy

organized at the Duino Castle (residence of the Thurn and Taxis for over 4 centuries)

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 23

08.00 Bus leaving to Duino from Jolly Hotel (all other Hotels are nearby)

AM

Welcome by SAS Prince Charles of Torre e Tasso

Greetings by M. Franco Jacop, “Assessore” for International Relations of the Government of the Autonomous Region Friuli – Venezia Giulia

Statement by Ambassador Harald Kreid, Director General, Central European Initiative, Trieste

09.00 Session 9: The Building of the European Welfare Policy: the Impact and Contributions of the New and Future Member States

Chair: Prof. Orio Giarini, Honorary Member of the Club of Rome, Trieste,

Introduction: Mr Patrick Liedtke, Member of the Executive Committee of the Club of Rome

- Mr Maceij Duszczuk, Deputy Head of the Department of Economic and Social Analyses, Government, Warsaw, “Development of Social Policy after Enlargement“
- Dr Andrei Doubinine, Director General, Ingrosstrakh LMT, Moscow, “A view from Russia“
- Prof. Eva Ehrlich, Center per Social Studies, Budapest
- Dr Karel Zeman, Institute of Integration of the Czech Republic in the European and World Economy, Prague, “Basic factors of needed welfare policy transformation in the Czech Republic“
- Prof. Ivo Slaus, former Member of the Croatian Parliament and member of the Club of Rome, Zagreb
- Dr Miroslav Koncina, Councillor, Ministry of the Economy, Ljubljana
“The management of health reforms in Slovenia“

11.00 Coffee break

11.30 Session 10: Future, Projects on Health, Work, Retirement and Education

Chair: Dr Thomas Schauer, European Coordinator, The Club of Rome, Vienna

- Club of Rome members (from major Academies of Science and other Institutions in Eastern Europe) – brainstorming with the contribution of Dr Medea Abashidze, Academy of Sciences of Georgia, Tbilissi; Dr Lidiya Kavunenko, STEPS Center, National Academy of Sciences, Kiev; Prof. Ivo Slaus, Member of the Croatian Parliament, Croatian Academy of Sciences, Zagreb, Aleksander Zidansek, J. Stefan Institute, Ljubljana, Slovenia; Prof. Emeritus Eleonora Barbieri Masini, Gregorian University, Rome
- Prof. Domenico Romeo, Rector of the University of Trieste
Presentation of a project for a Regional Center for the Study of the (counter) Ageing Society

13.00 Buffet lunch and visit of the castle

* Languages: English and Italian upon request